

Activity Ideas

with Wiltshire
Children's Centres

For children aged 6-11 years

Booktrust Recommendations for January

For ages 6-8 and up

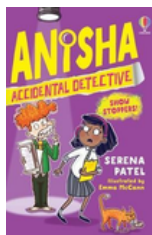

Frankenshtiltskin

Author: Joseph Coelho
Illustrator: Freya Hartas

This funny, clever and very enjoyable verse retelling of Rumpelstiltskin takes the story back to its original darkly horrifying roots and adds a smart, likeable heroine who saves the day with a story.

For ages 9-11 and up

Anisha, Accidental Detective: Show Stoppers

Author: Serena Patel
Illustrator: Emma McCann

When disaster threatens to ruin the school musical, Anisha is on high alert for things that are 'not quite right'. Her detective brain will have the mystery solved in no time... with just a few wrong turns along the way.

Breakfast Burritos

Better Health
healthier families

Click here to see how to make this recipe and more

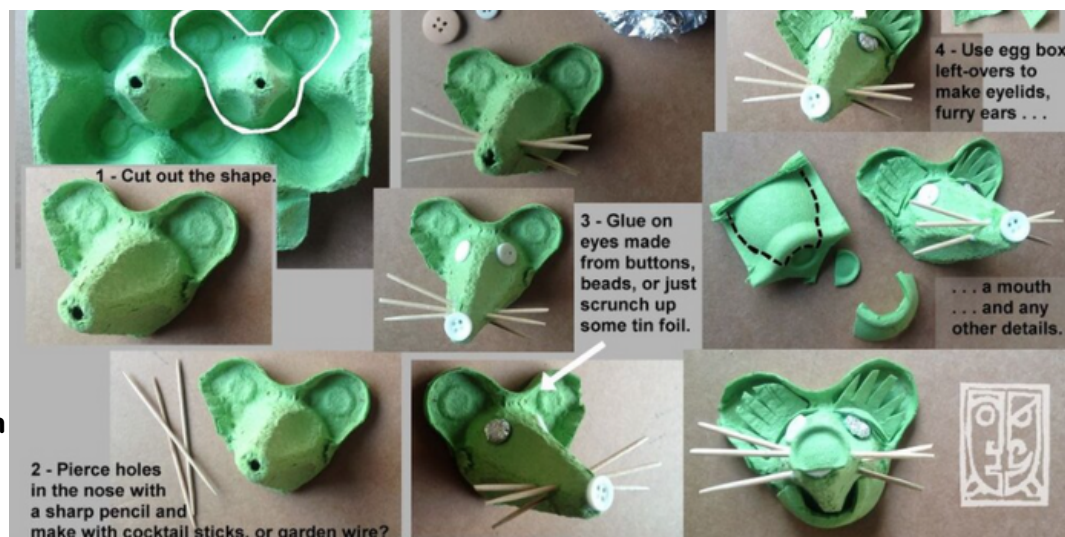

Wholewheat soft tortillas are topped with tomato and pepper omelettes, then rolled up. Perfect for a tasty breakfast - or wrapped up for a packed lunch.

A Great Make - Egg Box Mouse

#ArtJumpStart is a collection of easy art projects to try at home using materials from your recycling.

Click here to visit Darrell Wakelam's page for more ideas from #Artjumpstart

Let's Get Physical

Buzz Lightyear's Superbowl

Can you leap to infinity and beyond to catch a ball Buzz Lightyear has thrown for you?

Players: 2 or more
Where to play? Outdoors

Get a ball – the bouncier, the better – and choose someone to be Buzz Lightyear

Buzz Lightyear shouts "Go!" and everybody else runs away.

After counting out loud to 5, Buzz Lightyear throws the ball up into the air and everyone tries to catch it.

Whoever catches it takes over as Buzz Lightyear and the game starts again.

Click here to find other
Toy Story 10 minute
Shake Ups

